WHEREAS on the 8th June, 1918, in the Cape Province of The Union of South Africa, there was formed a Company under the name of The South African National Life Assurance Company Limited, (hereinafter called “the old Company”), and registered with limited liability under the Companies Act, 1892, of The Cape of Good Hope;

AND WHEREAS the old Company issued policies of life insurance to persons in Southern Rhodesia;

AND WHEREAS the old Company acquired movable and immovable property in Southern Rhodesia;

AND WHEREAS there was enacted in the Parliament of the Union of South Africa an Act called the South African National Life Assurance Company Incorporation (Private) Act, 1954, by virtue whereof the old Company ceased to exist upon the coming into operation of the said Act on the 19th March, 1954, and at the same time there came into existence a mutual life assurance Company under the name of South African National Life Assurance Company (hereinafter called “the new Company”);

AND WHEREAS the last-mentioned Act provided for the transfer to the new Company of all rights, obligations, assets and liabilities of the old Company but such provisions had no legal effect in respect of certain rights, obligations, assets and liabilities of the old Company in Southern Rhodesia and it is accordingly desirable to make similar provision in Southern Rhodesia;
